

Study Outline, Part One: Fascism the historical context. Can we or can't we draw relevant parallels?

1:00PM 15 min. - Welcome – Thank you for attending! 5 minute card exercise

The study and its purpose

15 min. Historical fascism

Notes:

Political/Economic

Ideology/Totalitarianism

Break

1:45PM Discussion

Stories of our own experience with Fascism or elements present within fascism

Other discussion?

Input from the group for the next two study sessions

Next Study Session, Part 2: Now that we understand Fascism, do we see signs of it?

1:00-2:30PM Sunday, September 25, 2016 at Nucleus CoShare, 411 E Fifth St., Dayton, OH 45402

The Congregation for Reconciliation, also known as CfR Dayton in social media applications, is a social action community with equal members of Faith and Conscience that is intentionally inclusive and diverse. Formed in 1968, CfR has a reputation for rigor in study and analysis as a guide to strategic social action. In that vein, the Congregation presents the study today. For more info on the CfR, www.cfrdayton.weebly.com